

ANN MANARD CASE SANDS BIBLE

This record submitted to the Society in February, 1962 by Miss Tallulah Arbour, <address deleted>, Baton Rouge, La., who has added in parentheses some notes which identify the persons listed in relation to herself. Holy Bible, published by the American Bible Society, New York, 1850. Inscription: "Ann Manard Case Sands Book, presented by Solomon Morgan Brian." Miss Arbour also sent these notes: "Solomon Morgan Brian married twice. Mr. Chance is a descendant from the Rogillio union, and I am from the second marriage with Ann Sands. (See record, also in Volume III). We are using Solomon Morgan Brian's silver. It was willed to my mother by an aunt, whose husband, an uncle, Milton Chance, put it in her lap when she, as a little girl, attended her Aunt Nina's funeral. The Chance's married into the family twice. Benajah Chance married grandpa's half sister, Rachel, and Milton married his sister, Peninah Appoline Brian."
